MANY CHANGES

Made On The L. & A. Division of The L. & N.

The L & A division of the L & N. Railroad Company, has made many changes within the past few weeks. On October 1, the L. & A. divi ion became known as the Eastern Kentucky division and its management became operative under the following named gentlemen: Mr. M. Sergeant was appointed Superintendent of Division; Captain John R. Pates, of this city, becomes Master of Trains; Col. J. E. Cleary, also of this city, was made Chief Train Dispatcher; Mr. II S. Hills, of Irvine, was appointed Master Merchanic; Mr. P. F. Kesheiner. Associate Train Master; Mr. J. O Ely, Road Master; Mr. R. T. Stafford, Supervisor of Bridges and Buildings; Walter Moores, Assistant engineer; Mr. O M. Hardesty, Special Stock and

The officers of Master of Trains and been located at Richmond for several against the night marauders of west-1. The station at Irvine has been named Revenna.

The Eastern Kentucky division includes that portion of the road between Frankfort and Maloney, Ky.

Under the present management the company hopes to be able to take efficient care @ the large increase of business of the road and give its patrons better service in the future than during the past.

During recent years the L. & A. has the natural products of the mountains of Eastern Kentucky are covered with handwood timber of the finest variety, and coal and timber and minerals are to be found in greatest abundance, and it is only a question of short time when the Eastern Kentucky division will be one of the most prolific and best paving travel have been largely on the increase o some time.

Business has only just begun. Extensive improvements are now being made all along the line, and is only a question of a short time when the old L. & A. System will become one of the marvels of Kentucky.

$500,000 TRAIN ROBBERY WILL CONTINUE Masked Men Hold Up B. & O. Express Train With Shot Guns.

Wheeling, W. Va. (Special): Armed with sawed-off shotguns, two masked men held up and robbed a Baltimore & Ohio express train near Central, W. Va., and escaped with booty, which, it is declared, are legal tender. The two men, after forcing the engineer and firemen to "split" their train, went about the task of rifling the mail car. They then started tohead of passes, are in hot pursuit. The robber's haul is one of the largest ever recorded in the nation's his-

Looking over his shoulder Samuel Holmes, the engineer, saw two masked men climbing over the coal, each carrying an automatic shotgun.

One of the men ordered Holmes to cut off the engine and through mail from the remainder of the train and then stood by Holmes directing the distance he should run it. When two miles to the west had been covered, the highwaymen ordered Holmes to stop and climb down, while the fireman was compelled to do likewise. Here the robbers went through the
